

REFUNDS

Refund Policy & Course withdrawal

Tuition fees are only refundable if the student has been refused entry clearance/visa to the UK. This refund will be paid after administrative charge deduction of £200.00 if the following conditions are met.

A. The student has not entered in the UK.

B. St Peter's College of London is supplied with the Original Letter issued by the British High commission / Embassy confirming the refusal of visa and a copy of student's passport showing refusal stamp.

C. Student's visa was not refused due to providing false information and documentation to British High Commission / Embassy.

D. All original documents issued to the student including the Certificate of Enrolment and the receipt of the fees paid (e.g. Proof of bank transfer, draft or credit card payment) has been submitted to St Peter's College of London at the time of Refund claim.

E. The student has appealed against the refusal (documentary evidence needed) and appeal has been dismissed.

F. Students found to be refused visa due to violation of student visa conditions, breach of student status regulations or any offences identified by the UKBA for the refusal are not eligible for Tuition Fees refund /transfer of fees to anyone else.

G: In Tier 4 Points-based system (PBS), Points are awarded for having a valid CAS issued by a licensed sponsor which is worth 30 points and in addition 10 points are given for fulfilling the Maintenance (Funds) requirement. If the British High commission / Embassy refuses the visa to a student for failing to meet Maintenance (Funds) requirement (which is worth 10 points), a minimum £1000 (One thousand pounds) then will be deducted from his / her deposit.

H. No refund will be made under any of the following circumstances:

1. Proven that admission was obtained on submission of false documentation/information.
2. A refund claim was made on false documentation / information.
3. Refund claim verification proves a fraudulent attempt for the claim.
4. Student entering the UK using St. Peter's College of London admission documentations, and claiming to withdraw from attending stipulated course schedules.

 Refund claim should not arrive later than 28 days after the date of visa refusal /session and a refund process can take over four to eight weeks provided that the above conditions are met.
